Examples:

An example from Hannah Lee, who wrote Bloom Where You're Planted.

Hannah Lee was born and raised outside the city of London, in the beautiful county of Kent.

Hannah considers her family to be the most important part of her life. If she isn't spending time with her friends in the park or with her family, you can almost always find her around her sweet yellow Labrador retriever, Bobby.

Bloom Where You're Planted is Hannah's first children's book.

An example from Miss Gray, who wrote The Messy Adventure.

Miss Gray is a teacher at Cheswardine Primary and Nursery school. She enjoys reading funny books and laughs every time she reads a good book by Roald Dahl. Miss Gray's particular favourite is George's Marvellous Medicine.

Miss Gray loves to bake cakes, biscuits and brownies. After she has eaten these delicious treats, she spends her time walking through the beautiful countryside in Shropshire.

Miss Gray is an award-winning author with many of her books winning prizes all over the world. She believes that reading is magic, as you can travel across different worlds all whilst cuddled up in your own blankets.
