Dear Three Bears

I am very sorry for coming into your house uninvited and helping myself to your porridge. It was very rude of me. I should not have tried to sit in your three chairs and I should definitely not have broken the chair of Baby Bear. I am sorry that I was so tired I had to go and have a lie down in your bedroom. Trying every bed out was the wrong thing to do and I should really have taken my shoes off before I went to sleep.

To say sorry, I would like to invite you to a tea party at my house next week. I do hope that you can come along. Please reply and let me know that you can come and tell me what your favourite party foods are so that I can prepare them for you. I think we will also play some games so can you tell me what your favourite party games are and how to play them please as I've never had a tea party before.

Thank you

Love from Goldilocks x
