

English

Pathways to write:

Narrative fiction based on the story of Funnybones and First day at Skeleton school.

Non-Fiction texts about traditional Mexican festival 'Day of the Dead'.

Instructional writing for making festival bread.

SPAG-

Identifying and using nouns, vowels, consonants, finger spaces, capital letters and full stops.

Forest School.

Getting to know the forest school area.

Using tools, materials safely.

Mindfulness in nature.

Spotting changes in the seasons.

Setting up and making fire safely.

Cooking marshmallow skulls

Science

The human body.

Skeletons.

Changes in growth.

The basic needs of humans for survival.

Maths

Numbers to 10. Numbers to 20. Numbers to 100.

Addition and subtraction within 20 and 100 including recognition of money.

Place value to 50.

Multiplication.

Problem solving to work systematically, trial and error and finding patterns.

History

A local study.

Shropshire Street in Market Drayton.

How has it changed over time.

Class One - Topic Web - Autumn 1 2021

PE Movement and Ball skills

Art

Exploring colour and pattern through the Mexican festival 'Day of the Dead'

Phonics

Reception- Read write Inc set 1

Year 1 - Read write Inc set 2 , recap set 1

Year 2 - Read write Inc set 3, recap set 2.

PSHE

Friendships

Homework

To begin in week 4 for Yr 1 and 2.

RE

Special stories for Christians and Muslims

