

FAMILIES AND FRIENDSHIPS

RECAP

- Identify what makes a positive healthy or an unhealthy relationship.
- Identify strategies to build friendships.
- Recognise there are different types of family structure.
- That there are different types of marriage ceremony and what marriage represents.

CRUCIAL KNOWLEDGE

- List some qualities of a good friendship: mutual respect, trust, truthfulness, loyalty, kindness, generosity and sharing interests.
- Peer pressure is doing something you feel uncomfortable about, because everyone else is.
- Respect is an important part of relationships, it is when we are thoughtful and polite towards other people.
- People in a relationship can decide if they want to make a lifelong commitment, like get married, or not.
- Stereotypes can have negative consequences but they can be challenged.

EXTENDED KNOWLEDGE

- Give suggestions as to how stereotypes can be challenged.
- Give differences and similarities between a civil partnership and marriage.

KEY VOCABULARY

Attraction	The sense of closeness, interest, or desire you feel toward someone.
Commitment	When two people committ to each other.
Respect	Being thoughtful and polite towards other people.

Marriage	The legal commitment of two people to each other which is intended to be lifelong.
Civil partnership	Two adults make a legal declaration of commitment.
Peer pressure	Peer pressure is doing something you feel uncomfortable about, because everyone else is.
Stereotype	A view or idea about something, often someone, which can be untrue.